CONSTITUTION AND LEGAL PERSONALITY

1, PREAMBLE

1.1 The founding members which consist of those within the South African Kickboxing (SAKA) fraternity, have unequivocally pledged to unite and commit themselves towards an improved system based upon principles of equal opportunity, non-racialism and non-sexism for all persons, and have dedicated themselves to ensuring equitable development at National and representative level, which ensures the implementing of coordinated procedures and policies, which would ensure high performance levels of athleticism in kickboxing, thus allowing the delivery of SAKA Teams by the pooling of activities, resources, experience and expertise, as well as co-ordinating the preparation and delivery of any high performance event nationally and internationally. Furthermore, the intention of SAKA is to ensure that there's only one kickboxing structure within the armpit of SA sport which will ensure the credibility of SASCOC and at large the Republic of South Africa from an international perspective.

1.2 SAKA as an organisation affiliated to SASCOC, undertakes to respect the provisions of the SASCOC Constitution and to abide by the decisions of SASCOC. Furthermore, SAKA undertakes, in accordance with our mission and role at national level, to participate in actions to promote peace and to promote women in sport. SAKA also undertakes to support and encourage the promotion of sport ethics, to fight against doping and to demonstrate a responsible concern for environmental issues.

1.3 The South African Kickboxing Association will be a public benefit organization within the auspice of SASCOC and internationally to WAKO.
